4. Log Files

Anant Mobility follows a standard procedure of using log files. These files log visitors when they visit websites. All hosting companies do this and are a part of hosting services' analytics. The information collected by log files include internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, Internet Service Provider (ISP), date and time stamp, referring/exit pages, and possibly the number of clicks. The purpose of the information is for analyzing trends, administering the site and applications, tracking users' movement on the website, and gathering demographic information.

5. Cookies and Web Beacons

Like any other website, Anant Mobility uses "cookies". These cookies are used to store information including visitors' preferences, and the pages on the website that the visitor accessed or visited. The information is used to optimize the users' experience by customizing our web page content based on visitors' browser type and/or other information.

6. Advertising Partners Privacy Policies

Third-party ad servers or ad networks use technologies like cookies, JavaScript, or Web Beacons that are used in their respective advertisements and links that appear on Anant Mobility, which are sent directly to users' browser. They automatically receive your IP address when this occurs. These technologies are used to measure the effectiveness of their advertising campaigns and/or to personalize the advertising content that you see on websites that you visit. Note that Anant Mobility has no access to or control over these cookies that are used by third-party advertisers.

7. Third Party Privacy Policies

Anant Mobility's Privacy Policy does not apply to other advertisers or websites. Thus, we are advising you to consult the respective Privacy Policies of these third-party ad servers for more detailed information. It may include their practices and instructions about how to opt out of certain options.

You can choose to disable cookies through your individual browser options. To know more detailed information about cookie management with specific web browsers, it can be found at the browsers' respective websites. However, please note that disabling cookies will also reduce your browsing experience and may disable some features on our applications.

8. Right to verify background

Anant Mobility reserves the right to verify the background of its users. All drivers and driving assistants will be automatically vetted for priors. In such cases, personal information will be shared with the said agencies. This is done to safeguard our interests and those of our partners.
